TAKE A SEAT - SUPPORT THE ARTS

Bowie State University's new Fine and Performing Arts Center will soon offer wonderful new, intimate performance spaces to expand cultural offerings for the entire community. You can be among the first to "Take a Seat" and support the exciting new programs waiting to take the stage.

With your sponsorship at any level, an individually inscribed bronze plate will be affixed to a seat in the main stage theatre or the recital hall assuring your support for the arts will be recognized at every performance in the venue.

The University is proud to offer this memorable way for the community to take part in opening the new facility. Seat sponsorships will generate funds for immediate use to support the acquisition of equipment and supplies for instruction, exhibition and performance, including the grand opening season. Sponsorships will also provide resources for ongoing maintenance and programming in the new center.
