Dogs are better than cats because...

- They are loyal
  - A. Loyalty is known to help build trust and self-confidence in owners
  - B. Having a loyal pet is less stressful on the owner

- They poop/pee outside
  - A. Keeps the house from smelling like a lot of owner will smile more
  - B. Encourages exercise in the owner for needing to go on walks

- They are known to smile
  - A. Smiles are contagious, so the smelling like a lot of owner will smile more
  - B. Studies have shown that smiling even when you're not happy can make you feel happy

For Example

- C. My friend's dog pulled him and his family from a fire
- C. Cat litter commercials are a clear indicator that people who have cats as pets struggle with more odors
- C. Whenever my dog smiles, I smile, and no matter my mood, I instantly feel better.
